Request for Review of Manuscript and Approval for Open Publication

SAF/PAS

1. Enclosed are five copies of an AF/CHO manuscript entitled Interdiction in Southern Laos, 1960-1968. Request review of the manuscript and approval for open publication.
2. This office believes the manuscript to be unclassified and this is supported by the attached correspondence from the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (ISA), JCS, DIA, Department of the Army (DAAG-AMR-D), Naval Historical Center, AF/IN, AF/RDEA, and AF/XO. Both JCS and AF/IN suggested the manuscript be cleared through CIA, but we did not do so because no CIA sources are cited in the footnotes. We did forward a copy to the State Department for declassification review on 21 July 1981, but State has not responded. According to the State point of contact, Mr. Ainsworth, telephone 632-0565, the delay is due to a heavy workload involving FOIA reviews.
3. We are continuing to handle the manuscript as classified pending completion of Security Review. Request your assistance in expediting the review to enable early publication.

Subj: "Interdiction in Southern Laos, 1960 - January 1968;" Comments regarding

Ref: (a) Your ltr of 27 July 1981

1. Subject manuscript has been reviewed in accordance with reference (a).

2. There is nothing in this manuscript that would preclude its declassification from the Navy's point of view. The work also appears to be thoroughly researched and accurate, with the exception of the following minor comments:

- ✓ Page 13: Properly Boun Oum na Champossak.
- ✓ Page 13: Kōng Le overthrew the government of Prince Somsanith (not Souvanna) and replaced it with one led by Souvanna.
- ✓ Page 13: The State Department did not support the Souvanna government until early 1961 and until then favored Phoumi.
- ✓ Page 20: Patrol of the Tonkin Gulf was only one of many tasks assigned the Seventh Fleet in Southeast Asian waters.
- ✓ Page 20: The impression is given that MACV and CINCPAC were separate, unified commands when, in actuality, the former was subordinate to the latter.
- ✓ Page 53: Admiral Sharp was not CINCPAC until 30 June 1964.
- ✓ Page 57fn: Klusmann remained in captivity for only 86 days (less than three months) from 6 June to 31 August 1964.
